

MyLanguage Your Language in the Digital Age

MYLANGUAGE FIRST NATIONAL CONFERENCE 9–11 August 2010

Join us to explore how information technologies can be used to enable culturally and linguistically diverse communities to achieve greater social inclusion while maintaining cultural and linguistic identity.

THEMES INCLUDE:

- understanding and responding to the information and cultural needs of CALD communities
- addressing the special needs of groups including new settlers and seniors
- using digital technologies including Web 2.0 and multimedia to meet those needs
- building collaborative partnerships across sectors with communities
- enhancing the role of service providers and public libraries to meet the information needs of CALD communities
- examples of innovative programs.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- CALD communities
- Peak bodies
- Public libraries
- Service providers
- Government

WANT MORE INFORMATION?

Visit:

www.MyLanguage.gov.au

or email: conference@mylanguage.gov.au

STATE LIBRARY OF NSW

Macquarie Street
Sydney NSW 2000 Australia
www.sl.nsw.gov.au

The MyLanguage First National Conference is presented in partnership by the following State and Territory Libraries

